

THE GREAT ESCAPE

2-3 April 2016

Craving fresh country air? Want to escape the rat race? Want to learn more about where your food and fibres come from?

The Dirranbandi Show Committee, in conjunction with Cubbie Station, invites you to experience the hospitality and resilience of their proud, rural community (Population 711) - standing tall despite years of drought.

Included in this unique two day outback travel adventure is a tour of the Southern Hemisphere's largest irrigation property, Cubbie Station which produces 96,000 hectares of cotton and grains, entry to the 96th Annual Dirranbandi Show, top class entertainment and much, much more!

Your support will help raise funds and awareness for DV Connect (Domestic Violence) and Tie up the Black Dog (Mental Illness)

Dirran' raised, Gold Logie winning, Home and Away star Ray Meagher (Alf) will officially open the show which will feature:

$300 Lucky Gate Prize, Sit down lunch – Campdrafting – Yard Dog Trials- Shearing Demonstrations – Equestrian/ Ring Events, Fashion Parade –Sideshow-Local Art and Produce, as well as:

The Dirranbandi Drought Concert

An open-air spectacular featuring perennial favourite James Blundell, Queensland-based 'Country-Fried' rocker Mick Lindsay, 20 year-old rising Nashville star Missy Lancaster and ever the popular Ayers Rockettes (Keith Urban is a former band member!!)
